

LIC. WILLIAM RODRÍGUEZ
COSTA RICA

Licentiate William Rodríguez U. is an attorney at law and journalist, who graduated at the University of Costa Rica. In 1998, he started his national canine career when he began breeding german shepherd dogs. He participated in national and international competition rings, where he presented his best dogs, which obtained great results and excellent awards because of their notorious quality. Moreover, in order to introduce new breeds in the country and the rest of Central America, he decided to raise english pointers and english setters. Thus, he accomplished to win several national and worldwide international championships. He has also bred different miniature schnauzer varieties, which likewise managed to obtain important exhibition awards.

Recently, he has initiated the raising of australian terrier, papillon and fox terrier wire hair dogs. Because of the special training that these dogs receive, they have often reached excellent positions at their exhibitions. Moreover, his dogs have won their own groups during the Dog of the Year Competition.

He has been representative of our Asociación Canófila Costarricense (A.C.C.) at the F.C.I. Assembly, which was held in Bogotá, Colombia, as part of the Americas Tournament. Likewise, he represented Costa Rica as a delegate at the SICALAM 2006 Assembly in Guatemala City and for the México World Dog Show 2007 at the F.C.I. Assembly.

Moreover, he has been the director of the Exhibition Committee during the past years, where to date he has organized and leaded several national and international shows. There, he also worked as Judging Secretary and Exhibition Director. He was Director for the SICALAM 2007 show and will be organizer of the F.C.I. Judges Seminar, to be held in Costa Rica in 2009. Currenty, he is considered to be an excellent teacher in the Judging Secretary courses that he has been in charge of. His students have done an incredible job at the judging tables, helping to improve the quality of the various exhibitions.

As a costarican judge, he has had an excellent performance both in national and international exhibitions, which include Costa Rica, Ecuador, Honduras, Colombia, Mexico, Guatemala, Chile, Argentina, Brazil, El Salvador and EE.UU.

CONTACT INFORMATION:

E-mail: wywasdos@ice.co.cr

Phone Numbers: (506) 2258-8908 <Office>
(506) 8383-1518 <Mobile>
(506) 2272-3047 <Home>